President's Message

by Elsa Conrad

UNE AT a synagogue is often a month to put up one's feet and relax. But this year we don't have a moment to spare. Just look at the calendar: High Holy Days kick off Sept. 4 with Rosh Hashanah, followed by Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur Sept. 13-14. None of it happens without planning, so summer at Betenu figures to be very hectic this year.

With the High Holy Days coming up fast, this is a time of year when taking part truly leads to spiritual growth. And it doesn't have to be difficult. Try these ideas and become a Betenu volunteer. It's easier than you think!

Five Easy Ways to Help

1. Lead the children's Rosh Hashanah service. A little less structured, the kids' service is fun and easy. You'll free up other volunteers and get to know the next generation of Betenu leaders. With the High Holy Days coming up fast, taking part truly leads to spiritual growth. Try these ideas and become a Betenu volunteer. It's easier than you think!

- Help identify local Jewish families who are unaffiliated. To succeed this year, our membership base must grow. Know someone? Pass their name along.
- 3. Be an ambassador for our community and religious school. Word of mouth about Betenu activities is our best advertising. Keep up with our latest activities, and make sure your friends do too.
- Volunteer for a fundraiser. Increasing our fundraising efforts is a must. Many projects require only a few hours and can be done at your convenience. To find just the right activity, talk to one of our Board officers listed on page 2.

5. Share your ideas. With new rabbinic leadership this year, we are eager to share our traditions with Nate DeGroot while also evolving new ones. Why not offer your suggestions on how we can add meaning and joy to our observance?

Now a closing word about (surprise) money.

At the May 26 Annual Meeting, our primary concern was finance; Betenu must be quicker and more proactive in fundraising. Consequently you'll soon receive your last statement for 2012-13. If you have an outstanding membership balance, please do your best to send it to the office as soon as possible. Every dollar counts toward our success.

Welcome to Betenu, Nate DeGroot!

HIS MONTH we are delighted to announce that Nathan DeGroot will serve as Betenu's Rabbinic Intern for the coming year.

Nate will lead High Holy Day Services in addition to serving at Betenu two weekends a month, September through May. On these weekends he will lead Friday services and take part in school on Sundays. Nate will also officiate at B'Nei Mitzvot ceremonies for the coming school year.

A student at the Rabbinic School of Hebrew College, Nate was formerly Rabbinic Intern at the University of Rhode Island Hillel, where he led High Holy Day services and acted as chaplain to students. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt University, as well as an experienced religious teacher whose enthusiastic style has won high marks from students and parents alike.

"We were very impressed with Nate's warmth and enthusiasm," noted Betenu president Elsa Conrad. "We feel he will inspire us all to celebrate our Judaism, and hope you will take the opportunity to introduce yourself at Betenu events." Welcome to our community, Nate.

FROM THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE

S CHOOL NOTES

- ◆ Join Betenu's future Bar/Bat Mitzvah students at the June 7 Shabbat service and support them as they prepare for their big day! It starts at 7:30 pm.
- Now's the time to catch up on service requirements. Stop by at 7:30 pm on June 7 or June 21, or at 7 pm on June 28.
- To learn more about Betenu educational activities, contact Sheryl Liberman at 424-4609 or saml54@comcast.com.

▲ Students gather for their final class and a teacher appreciation brunch on May 19. Thanks to all our parents and volunteers for making this a great conclusion to the school year!

 Rabbi Joel Baron instructs Betenu's Bar/Bat Mitzvah students as they prepare for their Torah readings.

Early Lay-led Service at 7 pm on June 28

You wanted a family-friendly time for services. Now you have it! We start at 7 pm on Friday, June 28. Bring the family plus your children's prayer books, and finish in plenty of time to put the little ones to bed!

Baseball, Betenu and Bingo, July 15

Why spend hundreds to squeeze into Fenway? You and your family will have a ball at Holman Stadium on July 15, as the Nashua Silver Knights battle the Pittsfield Suns in the Futures Collegiate Baseball League. Tickets for Betenu members are only $4. Plus it's Bingo Night at the park with prizes! Game time is 7:05 pm. Call our office to reserve seats, or contact Sheryl Liberman at 424-4609.

In the Hospital? Keep Us Informed

National privacy laws keep hospitals from calling congregations when their members are admitted as patients. If you'd like help or a little friendly support during your convalescence, just ask for the hospital chaplain and request that Betenu be notified. We're here for you.

Barbara Bailey, Elaine Schwartz Honored with Shem Tov Awards

We're very pleased to announce that Barbara Bailey and Elaine Schwartz have just been named 2013 Shem Tov Award winners by the Jewish Federation of New Hampshire.

Barbara Bailey Elaine Schwartz

Leading the Tu B'shevat Seder for more than 20 years, Barbara and Elaine will be honored on June 9 for their tireless volunteerism on behalf of Betenu and its religious education programs. Always quick to lend a hand, Barbara and Elaine epitomize the very best that Betunu has to offer.

Our sincere thanks and congratulations go out to Barbara and Elaine, as well as to their proud families. Mazel Toy!
