HIGHLIGHTS

Reflections of a proud Bar Mitzvah mom

If you noticed that this calendar is being posted VERY late, blame the preparations for Ben's Bar Mitzvah.

As I write this, we are still basking in the amazing feelings generated by having so many of our family and friends present to watch Ben join the adult Jewish community.

It was a reminder to me of just how important our synagogue is in bringing young Jews into the community and gives me new enthusiasm for the hard work it takes to keep our Temple moving forward. In coming months, you will see many requests, large and small, for support in our activities. Please join in. No matter the size of the job, the reward is always greater.

Thanks to everyone who joined us for Ben's special day!

Chanukah fun ahead:

- Join us Friday, December 7 for our Chanukah bash, including potluck dinner at 6:30, community candle lighting at 7:15 and services at 7:30 pm
- The annual gift swap will take place during the oneg.
- Tickets are now on sale for a Chanukah 50-50 raffle. Tickets will be on sale at Sunday School and before services up until the drawing during our December 7 Chanukah celebration. You do not need to be present to win.
