HIGHLIGHTS

What will summer bring?

May generally marks the start of a quieter season at Betenu, as the Sunday School year ends and people start to think about summer plans.

Last summer, some members talked about trying to organize more summer activities. What would you like to do with Betenu this summer? Let us know if these past events/suggestions appeal or if you have other ideas.

- Adult educations sessions, lay or rabbinic intern led
- Attending a baseball game with members of the congregation
- Children's activities, such as a PJ havdallah
- High Holy Day learning sessions, to help with torah readings or special holiday prayers

Shop for summer and help Betenu

Summer brings barbecues and that may require some shopping. The following activities can get you what you need and benefit Betenu

- Hannaford gift cards will let you buy all your picnic supplies and fresh produce while 5% goes back to Betenu.
- Make Betenu your Amazon Smiles connection and we will get a percentage on everything you purchase.
- Need to make room for your new summer wardrobe? Betenu is once again collecting used clothing, books, and household items for an Epilepsy Foundation fundraising drive.
