Something new for Betenu—can you help?

Over the next few months, Betenu will take on a new fundraising activity, sponsoring a golf tournament. On Saturday, May 18, teams of golfers will head out at Shattuck Golf Club in Jaffrey and take part in a “Florida-Style Best Ball Scramble” Golf Tournament, with proceeds to benefit Congregation Betenu.

This exciting activity is the brainchild of Scott Matson, who wanted to use his love of golf to benefit a good cause, and we at Betenu are grateful to him for his creative thinking and hard work to organize the event. But, we’re just getting started. Want to help?

- If you are a golfer, consider participating in the event. $100 gets you a place in the tournament, a chance to win, and a steak dinner.
- If you are not a golfer, but know some, encourage friends and family to enter the tournament. Keep an eye out for the flyer and share it shamelessly.
- Volunteer! While Scott has done the heavy lifting, we will need people to help with publicity, organization, and some tasks the day of the event.
- Can’t make it or not into golf? Consider turning one of your passions into an event or fundraiser for Betenu. We’re always looking for ways to involve more people.
- Questions? Contact the office (office@betenu.org) or Scott Matson (matsons@hotmail.com).
