HIGHLIGHTS

Tu B'shevat, the home edition

Celebrating Tu B'shevat in New Hampshire always takes some imagination, not to mention careful shopping. Since the holiday generally occurs in the depth of winter, none of the fruits needed to celebrate are in season here. The trees outside are bare. And no one can find carob without a struggle.

It is no wonder that gathering for Betenu's Tu B'shevat seder has always been one of our most popular events of the year. Whatever the weather, we are warm and cozy, and only occasionally snowed to our backup date. Our organizers scour local stores to find pomegranates and carob. The pitchers and carafes are filled with juice and wine.

And with a few adjustments, this year Tu B'shevat goes online! Join us via Zoom on Friday, January 29 at 6 pm, as Rav Dena leads us in a seder and schmooze. We can't provide a potluck, but we can help you gather seder fruit and nuts, juices, and a craft. If you would like a Betenu Tu B'shevat box, please contact Barbara Bailey ((603) 930-4854 or Barbara.fierman.bailey@gmail.com) by January 10. You can pick up your box at Betenu on Sunday, January 17 (snow date January 24).

Boxes are $18. Let Barbara know whether you need a box for 2 or a family-sized box.

Unfortunately, wine drinkers will have to provide their own. :-)
