

June 2021 Sivan/Tammuz 5781

HIGHLIGHTS

Reopening begins at Betenu

As more people are vaccinated and Covid cases continue to drop in New Hampshire, Betenu is beginning to hold in-person events and plan for future events. We also plan to continue offering online access for those unable or hesitant to attend events in person.

Our first in-person event will also be Rav Dena's farewell service as rabbinic intern. Join us at 10:30 am on Saturday, June 12 for this gathering (outdoors if the weather cooperates). Participants should bring chairs and seat themselves in family groups at least six (6) feet apart. For a full list of our guidelines, please check the weekly news. In case of rain, we will meet inside in accordance with our guidelines.

We will also be celebrating Rav Dena's rabbinic ordination on Sunday, June 6, which you can watch live at 3 pm on Youtube at: <http://hebrewcollege.edu/rabbordination>. Rav Sam Blumberg will also be ordained, so Betenu has two reasons to celebrate!

Our reopening committee is planning for physical reopening and ongoing online access. If you want to join to the committee or share ideas, please contact Elsa.
